

2017 Volunteer of the Year Award Nominations

Chicago Sister Cities International (CSCI) is accepting nominations for the fourth annual Volunteer of the Year Award. The deadline for nominations is Friday, October 13, 2017.

CSCI, a division of World Business Chicago, is a volunteer-based organization whose membership drives its diverse programming and initiatives. Through the dedicated efforts of its volunteers, CSCI is the largest and most active sister city program in the United States. CSCI received the 2017 "Best Overall Sister City Program (population over 500,001)" by Sister Cities International.

The Chicago Sister Cities International Volunteer of the Year Award recognizes a volunteer committee member who has played an important role in furthering CSCI's mission to promote Chicago as a global city, develop international partnerships and networks, and share best practices through citizen-to-citizen connections, particularly in the areas of cultural arts and tourism, global education, government relations and international business.

This outstanding individual will have shown leadership, talent, passion, enthusiasm and tenacity in promoting the work of CSCI locally and abroad.

The 2017 CSCI Volunteer of the Year Award will be presented at the 2017 Chicago Consular Corps Gala on December 8, 2017. The CCC Gala is attended by members of the Chicago Consular Corps; CSCI and World Business Chicago leadership; sister city committee representatives; and corporate and civic leaders within the Chicago community. The honoree will receive complimentary admission for themselves and a guest.
